

"The Catholic Church's Case for Comprehensive Immigration Reform"

presented by

Mr. Antonio Cube

National Director

Justice for Immigrants
Campaign, US Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB)

Tuesday, July 8, 2008, 1:00 PM

1st Floor Conf. Room, Diocesan Pastoral Ctr., 1123 S. Church St., Charlotte

For directions and parking info, go to www.charlottediocese.org/contactus.html.

Cold drinks & light refreshments will be provided (or bring your own lunch)

Wednesday, July 9, 2008, 7:00 PM

Social Hall, St. Eugene Catholic Church, 72 Culvern St., Asheville

For directions, go to www.steugene.org and click on the "Getting Here" icon.

Thursday, July 10, 2008, 10:00 AM

Tiffin Room, Living Waters Catholic Reflection Ctr., 103 Living Waters Lane,
Maggie Valley. For directions, go to www.catholicretreat.org/

About this presentation...What principles form the basis of the U.S. Catholic Bishops' call for comprehensive immigration reform? How can the faith community help bring about a society that welcomes newcomers, especially people fleeing poverty and/or seeking reunion with family? As we seek immigration reform, can we concurrently reach the goals of fulfilling our faith's mandate to "welcome the stranger," maintaining our nation's security, and respecting the moral values and civil laws which guide our actions? These questions will be addressed during this presentation. For more information on the "Justice for Immigrants Campaign," visit www.justiceforimmigrants.org.

Sponsored by: Diocese of Charlotte's Office of Hispanic Ministry, Asheville and Smoky Mountain Vicariates, and Catholic Social Services' Western Regional Office and Office of Justice and Peace